The New Direction for Corrections

Join us for MASCA's Annual Training Institute and Conference!

The last two years have certainly presented many additional hardships and challenges to serving the correctional population. Join us as we navigate the "new normal" and examine emerging best practices in corrections and community corrections.

MASCA strives to provide the finest training conferences in our field. Expand your professional network. Meet others working in the juvenile and criminal justice fields. Make connections and build relationships. Participate in quality, cutting edge training by accessing the latest and newest information. Enjoy the amenities that Harrah's Resort and Atlantic City have to offer.
